JERRY HANLON & JON FALK

TALES FROM THE MAIZE & BLUE

This year the Ann Arbor Rotary Club is thrilled to have not one, but two speakers who are an instrumental part of the “Winningest Team in College Football History”. Jerry Hanlon and Jon Falk will share some of their best stories from their decades of service to our mighty University of Michigan Wolverines.

JERRY HANLON is the only assistant coach to have been at Bo Schembechler's side for all 21 years of his time as head coach. He was also a halfback on the 1953-1955 Miami (Ohio) U teams that won two MAC championships. Following his coaching career, he has been an author, speaker and radio announcer with a reputation for weaving great tales of maize and blue which are sure to grab your attention. His time inside the huddle, the locker room and the buses and planes provides first hand insight into a legendary time in Michigan football history.

JON FALK was the equipment manager for the Wolverines for 40 years. He worked alongside Michigan coaches including Schembechler, Moeller, Carr, Rodriguez, and Hoke. He is a man who Tom Brady says inspires him and someone who has known Coach Harbaugh as a kid, a player and now the coach. It's said that nobody knows more about Michigan traditions, players and coaches, and he will bring those stories to share.

Please join us on September 11 to hear about the legendary history these two men lived. There will even be time for some Q&A for you to ask about a particular piece of history of which you may want to hear more. It will be a memorable event.
